

Profile

'Society expects organizations to have an ethical conscience. So let's create a dialogue with your stakeholders.'

Jelle Terpstra

Jelle is a business-oriented lawyer and entrepreneur at heart. This combination makes him a solid strategic legal partner for boards of directors and the management of organisations. He is used to translating strategic and political themes into workable solutions for our clients, with all stakeholders being heard and seen.

Jelle's focus lies on legal management, advising clients and their general counsels on risk management and legal department optimisation. With twelve years of experience as a corporate lawyer, Jelle has worked in many sectors such as banking, government and healthcare and has extensive experience in the fields of labour law, public procurement law, contract law and corporate law. He is currently working on his PhD in procurement law.

Jelle combines his years of legal experience with a practical way of working and always puts the needs of his clients first.
