'Good legal advice is all about turning a complex problem into a practical solution.'

Wiek Herben

Wiek is a seasoned company lawyer and attorney at law with years of experience in the financial sector.

Having both worked as an attorney of law for renowned law firms in the Netherlands as well as large international banks, Wiek has an intimate knowledge of the legal aspects surrounding financial transactions and financial products.

Wiek has assisted its clients regarding numerous legal matters, ranging from legal advice concerning derivatives, corporate lending, project trade and structured finance to negotiating with financial supervisors such as the Dutch central bank on matters of regulatory law and managing the legal aspects of highly complex financial transactions and financial products.

In 2010 Wiek transferred to the former Dutch Caribbean where he since then advised both large financial institutions and local / international companies on a broad range of legal affairs. Wiek always strives to create practical legal solutions, both inside and outside the courtroom. A natural born trouble-shooter, Wiek is at its best when it comes to managing uncertain and high risk situations.

Wiek has been admitted as an attorney of law to the Bar of Curacao and together with Robin Kooy heads up our Caribbean office.
