

Press Release: Peter van Dort joins Liance Caribbean and Liance Law Firm Amsterdam opens

By Liance | Jan 10, 2019

Liance is delighted to announce that Peter van Dort will join Liance Caribbean as a partner and will, together with other Liance Caribbean partners Wiek Herben and Robin Kooy, open Liance Law Firm Caribbean, both officially as of February 1, 2019!

Liance Law Firm is a new and modern law firm in Curacao, providing tailor-made solutions for a variety of clients. Liance Law Firm is personal, has a pragmatic approach and a focus on commercial contracts, corporate law, real estate & lease, financial law, insurance law, employment law, intellectual property law, competition law and dispute resolution. It also acts as a gateway to South American business.

Later this year, Liance Law Firm Amsterdam will open its doors as well, which will mean that Liance Netherlands will be able to truly offer a 'one-stop-shop' service to all of its clients. Jelle Terpstra commented: "The opening of Liance Law Firm Amsterdam later this year (date to be confirmed) will mean that we, in addition to offering the full range of legal services Liance clients are familiar with, will also offer litigation services where needed so that we no longer need to partner with external law firms. Together, we will offer next generation services within the entire legal spectrum through our highly dedicated and experienced company lawyers, consultants and attorneys at law."

More news about the launch of Liance Law Firm Amsterdam later this year will follow soon. Keep an eye on our website www.liance.legal or the website of Liance Law Firm www.liance.law.

Liance was established in 2016 by a group of legal professionals with the ambition to combine (strategic) international company legal services with legal management consultancy. Liance continues to strive to grow and to provide its clients with the practical and high-quality outsourced legal services they deserve and are familiar with. Offering legal services which evolve from risk mitigation to value creation continues to drive all our actions.
